SOCIAL SELF-I OBJECTIVES

- To address vocational guidance and career counselling methods and tools as paths facilitating social integration and inclusion.
- To promote self-empowerment of professionals in their involvement in actions promoting inclusion in the world of work of refugees, asylum seekers and other groups of adults at risk of exclusion.
- To share and exchange approaches, methods, tools on the identification of skills, competencies and qualifications.
- To foster awareness and development of transversal skills, increasing the capacity of tailoring practices and expertise to the needs of specific groups and relevant stakeholders, across working contexts and changing situations.

FOR WHOM

Vocational and career guidance practitioners, learning providers, University professors, researchers, trainers, policy makers, tools designers, social workers, staff of the refugee reception system.

Public institutions, private, non-profit volunteer organisations.

Our approach

An integrative - pluralistic approach to self-empowerment through practices exchange and training based on the transferability, adaptability and tailoring of knowledge, skills, competence and experience.

WHO WE ARE

A strategic partnership between four organisations from Germany, Greece, France and Italy involved at different levels and in a variety of roles in processes concerning the social and labour integration of asylum seekers, refugees, and adults in career transition.

- ASPIC LAVORO – Project Coordinator, Non-profit organisation (IT)
- HdBA - University of Applied Labour Studies of the Federal Employment Agency (DE)
- EOPPEP–National Organisation for the Certification of Qualifications and Vocational Guidance (GR)
- INSUP FORMATION–Vocational and Educational Training Organisation (FR)

WHAT WE DO

Our joint training events aim at creating a learning network between experts of the partner organisations on the key themes of the project, which are intended to be shared and transferred in the working practices of each partner, and shared with relevant stakeholders in the community at a local, regional, national and european level.

NETWORKING

One key scope of “Social Self-I” is to keep promoting and developing knowledge, practices exchange and empowerment.
